

We see the signs of the coming Kingdom.
We hear the sound of the falling rain.
We'll raise the banner high,
Jesus is coming again!
On the clouds, our king will ride
With the angels of God marching by His side.
Will raise the banner high,
Jesus is coming again!

(Chorus)

And we will praise His name on that final day
And we will sing to Him and offer all our praise.
We'll raise the banner high
Let the name of Jesus be praised.

We feel the fire come down from the sky
As the King of glory passes by.
We'll raise the banner high,
Jesus is coming again!
You have called us and we will ride
With the angels of God, marching by His side.
We'll raise the banner high,
Jesus is coming again!
